	Facilitator: Bishop Roger D. Callands  Many churches have abandoned the gospel in their quest to be modern or relevant. They have compromised God’s standards and plan of salvation for the sake of numbers, influence, and power. This compromise, building with straw on a solid foundation, has led to the creation of churches that will not withstand the pressures of today nor lead people to salvation. This cautionary tale reminds us of the importance of staying true to our core beliefs, even in the face of popularity or influence.

But the traditions of man and the dogmatic teachings of the church, which are interpretations of God’s word, have bound the people of God and turned people away from God. We must examine and move beyond the traditions of Man to live the standards of God.

9:30 am	New Vessels for New Wine Facilitator: Bishop Justin Marcus Using old methods but expecting new results. Doing the same thing that failed but expecting new results. This paradox underscores the urgent need for innovation in our ministering methods. We must keep the foundation of God while developing new ways to minister that are relevant to today's situations and circumstances. This emphasis on adaptation should inspire and motivate us to think creatively and push the boundaries of traditional ministry, knowing that our efforts will lead to a more relevant and impactful ministry.

3:00 pm	Present Truth vs Culture Facilitator: Bishop Al Jackson While God’s word doesn’t change, our understanding of the scriptures does. Paul wrote his epistles based on his day's present truth and culture. How would Paul address today's issues?
